Throughout the Easter season, our readings give us glimpses into the life of the newborn Church. Glimpses like the bold witness of the early disciples in spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. These disciples were the first to live a stewardship way of life.

In the First Reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, we catch up with Paul and Barnabas in Antioch. While they certainly have some success in reaching many people with the message of salvation, others are downright infuriated by their words and they are sent packing. Yet, we read their reaction to this turn of events, “The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.” Overall, it seems as if Paul and Barnabas had failed in Antioch, but this seeming failure had not robbed them of their joy. How is this possible?

It is only possible because Paul and Barnabas saw themselves as stewards of Christ and His Good News. This realization brought them freedom to offer themselves and their lives to others for the sake of the Gospel. They knew the Holy Spirit would never abandon them when their lives were focused on serving God and others. As a result, they experienced a profound sense of joy that does not depend on external circumstances - the kind of joy our world seldom gives.

This Spirit-filled, joy-filled life is available to all of us. It can be achieved when we recognize, like Paul and Barnabas, that all we have and all we are is a gift from God that is meant to be shared with others for His glory. Of course, living as God’s stewards does not mean a life of ease or a life free of sacrifice. Sometimes the steward’s life involves great challenges, requiring all the strength and love one has to give. But in the end, there is simply no more satisfying way to live.

So, this week let us resolve to take a step towards less concern about ourselves and greater trust in God. As is says in today’s Gospel, “I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand.” By trusting in God, we will become joy-filled, Spirit-filled stewards of His good news everywhere we go.

Please contact us at Stewardship@AmericanMartyrs.org, with questions or comments about Stewardship.

The next Matthew 25 meeting is Tuesday, June 4 at 7:00PM in the Parish House.
We invite all parishioners to join us to see how you can get involved in serving those in need!
The Rosary is a Scripture-based prayer. It begins with the Apostles' Creed, which summarizes the great mysteries of the Catholic faith. The Our Father, which introduces each mystery, is from the Gospels. The first part of the Hail Mary is the angel's words announcing Christ's birth and Elizabeth's greeting to Mary. St. Pius V officially added the second part of the Hail Mary. The Mysteries of the Rosary center on the events of Christ's life. There are four sets of Mysteries: Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and (added by Pope John Paul II in 2002) the Luminous.

The repetition in the Rosary is meant to lead one into restful and contemplative prayer related to each Mystery. The gentle repetition of the words helps us to enter into the silence of our hearts, where Christ's spirit dwells. The Rosary can be said privately or with a group.

How to Pray the Rosary

1. Make the Sign of the Cross.
2. Holding the Crucifix, say the Apostles' Creed.
3. On the first bead, say an Our Father.
4. Say three Hail Marys on each of the next three beads.
5. Say the Glory Be
6. For each of the five decades, announce the Mystery then say the Our Father.
7. While fingering each of the ten beads of the decade, next say ten Hail Marys while meditating on the Mystery. Then say a Glory Be.
   (After finishing each decade, some say the following prayer requested by the Blessed Virgin Mary at Fatima: O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of your mercy.)
8. After saying the five decades, say the Hail, Holy Queen, followed by this dialogue and prayer:
   V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
   R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
   Let us pray: O God, whose Only Begotten Son, by his life, Death, and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech thee, that while meditating on these mysteries of the most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
   Conclude the Rosary with the Sign of the Cross.

The Five Joyful Mysteries (traditionally prayed on the Mondays, Saturdays, and Sundays of Advent):
1. The Annunciation
2. The Visitation
3. The Nativity
4. The Presentation in the Temple
5. The Finding in the Temple

The Five Sorrowful Mysteries (traditionally prayed on the Tuesdays, Fridays, and Sundays of Lent):
1. The Agony in the Garden
2. The Scourging at the Pillar
3. The Crowning with Thorns
4. The Carrying of the Cross
5. The Crucifixion and Death

The Five Glorious Mysteries (traditionally prayed on the Wednesday and Sundays outside of Lent and Advent):
1. The Resurrection
2. The Ascension
3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit
4. The Assumption
5. The Coronation of Mary

The Five Luminous Mysteries (traditionally prayed on Thursdays):
1. The Baptism of Christ in the Jordan
2. The Wedding Feast at Cana
3. Jesus' Proclamation of the Coming of the Kingdom of God
4. The Transfiguration
5. The Institution of the Eucharist

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN
What risks are worth it for children.
In today’s society, parents are often torn between protecting their children, and letting them experience life and even make mistakes. Safety is vitally important, but there is value in learning from experience and from mistakes too. There may be times when parents wonder if they have gone too far in their efforts to safeguard children, perhaps inadvertently rendering them children less prepared to handle real-life situations.
For help in discerning when learning from experience may be appropriate see the VIRTUS® article, “Safety vs. Resilience in Childhood” at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx
For particular help, call Assistance Ministry at 213-637-7650.
